I. INTRODUCTION

In his note A/CN.9/22 the Secretary-General reproduced the substantive portions of thirteen replies from Governments of States Members of the United Nations to his communication of 24 July 1968 concerning the United Nations Convention of 1958 on the Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Arbitral Awards. The present addendum reproduces the substantive portions of two additional replies which have been received since the circulation of document A/CN.9/22.

II. TEXT OF THE REPLIES BY STATES

MALAWI

[Original: English]
18 February 1969

... due to the complicated nature of the Convention and due to the fact that it should be studied in the light of the Malawi Arbitration Act, 1967, the Malawi Government will indicate at a later date whether it intends to adhere to this Convention.

MONGOLIA

The Mongolian People's Republic attaches a substantial importance to the Convention on the Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Arbitral Awards of 1958, considering that it could facilitate increasing the effectiveness of arbitration in the settlement of international private law disputes. Therefore, the question of possible accession to this Convention is presently being considered by the competent authorities of the MPR.
