Abstract

The presentation will provide an overview of ITU-T and the latest work on identity management and it relation to Cybersecurity, Trust and online transaction. The talk will provide an overview of current ITU-T work on identity authentication assurance and illustrate its role is enabling the establishment of Global Trust Frameworks for enhancing privacy, interoperability and security in online systems.