Model Law on PPPs for CIS Countries as a New Regional Legislative Standard

Alexei Zverev, European Bank for Reconstruction and Development

4 March 2014

CIS IPA and Model Law on PPPs

- CIS Inter-Parliamentary Assembly – interstate body comprising parliamentary delegations of its members
- CIS IPA mandate
- Now – Model Law on PPPs for the CIS countries

Model Law as a Regional Standard

- Why Model Law as a regional legislative standard?
- ✓ Wider dissemination of best standards – 9 countries at once
- ✓ Easier consensus-building than on the universal level

Legal tradition

Judicial system

- ✓ Common  Economic background  Synergies

Social and cultural base

Emerging PPP market

CIS Model PPP Law – Key Points

- First draft developed by CIS IPA and commented on by EBRD and its experts in autumn 2013
- Takes on board many modern concepts
- Research of PPP practices / lessons learnt summed up in separate memoranda as a preface
- To be supported by policy and legislative guidance
- Practical tools as next steps
- Next draft by May 2014

CIS Model PPP Law – Challenges

- Enhance “bankability”
 - ❑ Refine certain concepts
- Reflect modern trends – Colloquium topics and beyond?
 - ❑ Cross-border PPPs (two or more grantors), smaller-scale PPPs
 - ❑ Facility management (PFI-type), performance-based contracts
